DEMOCRATS FIX DATE AUGUST 31

For Holding Platform Convention.

MASS CONVENTIONS AUG. 28

To Select Delegates to the Louisville Meeting—All Was Harmonious.

HAGER MADE STATE CHAIRMAN

For the purpose of adopting a platform of principles, Democrats throughout the State will hold a convention in Louisville Tuesday, August 31.

This was decided upon Saturday afternoon at a joint meeting of the Democratic State Central and Executive Committees held at the Galt House, Louisville. The meeting was presided over by Rufus H. Vansant, of Ashland, chairman, and was harmonious from start to finish. Just before the meeting adjourned, a resolution naming Judge S. W. Hager, of Owensboro, chairman of the Democratic Campaign Committee, with power to appoint Executive and Advisory Committees, a secretary and other assistants and to select headquarters, was adopted unanimously. Representation in the platform convention will be on the basis of one delegate for every 100 votes and every fraction thereof over fifty cast in the last Presidential election, the delegates to be selected in mass conventions to be held in all counties Saturday, August 28, beginning at 1 o'clock in the afternoon.

Convention Call.

The formal call, as issued by the committees in joint session, Saturday, for mass conventions and the State convention, follows:

"Be it resolved by the State Central and Executive Committees of the Democratic party of the State of Kentucky, in joint session assembled in Louisville, Ky., on August 14, 1915 (a quorum of each of said committees being present in person), that a Democratic delegate State convention be held in the city of Louisville on August 31, 1915, at one o'clock p. m., for the purpose of adopting and promulgating a platform of principles for the guidance of Democratic officers and of the party in Kentucky and for the consideration thereof by the people in the approaching campaign, to be followed by the November election of 1915, at which the State ticket and members of the next General Assembly are to be elected.

"Second—Delegates shall be selected to said convention on the basis of one delegate for every 100 votes and every fraction of 100 over fifty votes cast by the Democratic party of Kentucky at the Presidential election of 1912, which delegates shall be selected in mass conventions held in each and every county in the State; provided, that in case of counties having two or more legislative districts, separate conventions shall be held in each of said districts as aforesaid, beginning at 1 o'clock p. m. on Saturday, August 28, 1915, and said conventions shall be called to order and held in the manner provided by the party laws."

"Third—All known Democrats, all independent voters and all minors who will be legal voters at the November election, 1915, and all voters who declare a purpose to affiliate with the Democratic party in the next State election of 1915 are declared eligible to participate in said mass conventions, and to be elected delegates to said State conventions.

"Fourth—Said mass conventions shall be held at the court houses in the various counties constituting one or not more than two legislative districts; in all other counties the chairman shall designate the places of meeting."

Following the transaction of all business before the joint body, Chairman Vansant called upon A. O. Stanley, Democratic nominee for Governor, for an address. Mr. Stanley responded as follows:

ed devotion to the welfare of the Democratic party.

"Your united action, your willingness to subordinate every personal and local consideration to the common good, is the earnest of certain triumph this fall. In every part of the State Democrats to-day shall be cheered by your assurance that we have started upon a new era, an era of good feeling, an era of victory, which has scored its first triumph in the unanimous action of this committee. You have called a convention which will write a platform truly reflecting the will of a sovereign Democracy—a covenant with the people which shall reassert our devotion to Democratic principles and reaffirm the pledges made in your last convention, inspiring the confidence of all the forward-looking and patriotic men by proposing a program at once conservative and progressive.

"On behalf of all the nominees, I again thank you, Mr. Chairman, and your great committee, for your cordial co-operation and your invaluable service to the Democracy of Kentucky."

Democrats from throughout the State, including most of the successful and several of the unsuccessful candidates for nomination in the recent primary, were present at the meeting, and all were enthusiastic regarding the outlook for Democratic victory in November.

McLEAN COUNTY MAN IS KILLED AT BALL GAME

Owensboro, Ky., Aug. 15.—John Selby, 43 years of age, was shot and instantly killed by Ernest Gibbs at Island Station, McLean county, this afternoon. The tragedy was the result of previous trouble that had occurred between the two men. It is claimed that Selby had remonstrated with Gibbs for attending a cottage prayer meeting at Island while in an intoxicated condition. At a ball game at Island this afternoon the argument was resumed when the men met. It is said that Selby was in the act of striking Gibbs with a club when the latter pulled a revolver from his pocket and fired. Selby fell to the ground dead and Gibbs was arrested by the marshal and turned over to the Sheriff, who conveyed him to jail at Calhoun. Selby leaves a widow and three children. Gibbs is a section foreman on the Louisville & Nashville railroad.

PAN-AMERICAN APPEAL TO MEXICO IS ISSUED

Washington, Aug. 14.—The Pan-American appeal to Mexico, now being delivered to the chiefs of factions and Governors of States, was made public here to-night by the State Department.

Without even an intimation of armed intervention, it calls upon the leaders to meet somewhere in Mexico, on neutral ground, in a conference "to adopt the first steps necessary to the constitutional reconstruction of the country" and to issue a call for immediate elections. The services of the United States or any of the other Pan-American conferees are offered as intermediaries to arrange the meeting.

The appeal, although addressed to the political and military leaders, takes on the form of an announcement to the Mexican people themselves. As made public by the State Department the document is prefaced by this announcement:

"The Mexican people are informed that the following communication has been sent to many prominent persons in Mexico who possess authority or military power within the republic."

Young Hunter Killed.

Princeton, Ky., Aug. 14.—John Garrett Davis, the 13-year-old son of W. L. Davis, a marble dealer, while hunting this afternoon accidentally shot himself with a rifle, death resulting almost instantly. Davis left for the country shortly after noon in company with Edgar Mott, a relative, and Claude Koltinsky to go hunting, and when about two miles from town Koltinsky saw a bird in a field and went after it. Mott followed him, leaving Davis in charge of the horse. A few minutes later they heard him scream that he was shot and on rushing back to the buggy found him breathing his last. It is supposed that he attempted to get out of the buggy and in some manner discharged the gun, the bullet striking him in the region of his heart.

A woman might take lessons from the humble egg in the art of concealing her age.

MOOSE HOLD PLATFORM CONVENTION AUGUST 30

Call Issued By State Chairman
Holt—County Assemblies
August 28.

Delegates representing the Progressive party throughout the State will hold a platform convention in the auditorium of The Seelbach Hotel, Louisville, Monday, August 30, beginning at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon. The representation of each county in the convention will be based on the vote cast in that county for the Roosevelt electors in 1912.

The call for the State convention, and also the county conventions in which delegates to the State gathering will be selected, was issued by M. J. Holt, of Louisville, chairman of the Progressive State Central Committee, Saturday afternoon, he having been entrusted with the work of preparing the draft. The county conventions will be held Saturday, August 28, beginning at 1 p. m., and one delegate and one alternate delegate will be named for each 300 votes or fraction thereof over 150 cast for Progressive electors in 1912.

Candidates of the Progressive party for State offices are to be delegates to the convention from the State at large, with power to vote on any question that may arise.

It is provided in the call that the county chairman and county secretary in each county shall act as temporary chairman and secretary, respectively, of the convention in that county until a permanent chairman and secretary are elected.

According to the vote for Roosevelt in 1912 (which was 1,825) Ohio county is entitled to six delegates and six alternates.

HOPKINS PEOPLE WORK ROADS WITH VENGEANCE

Dawson Springs, Ky., Aug. 14.—Yesterday 200 men and boys of the city worked all day on the Earlington and Dawson Springs road. The work of the Dawson Springs men was confined to the Bush-Alexander hill at the city limits. This hill has been almost a barrier to entering the city.

Business men, encouraged by the splendid work done yesterday, are determined to remove this "Chinese wall" from the city and will make Wednesday of each week road working day until the hill is removed. All stores were closed and business stopped up to 4 o'clock. Fifty women served dinner on the road.

Work at the mines at Hsley and Carbondale was suspended and the employees worked on the road all day. Although St. Charles is not on the road that was being worked Wednesday, a large number of the St. Bernard mine employees worked on what is known as Todd hill. The hill was cut down and graded and put in good condition. At Earlington business was suspended and almost the entire male population turned out and worked many miles of road.

Good Roads Meeting.

The Ohio County Good Roads Association met in Fordsville last Saturday with the largest attendance yet. Simon Smith offered his large show tent for the meeting and there were at least 400 present. Much interest was shown by the people in the cause and certainly if any part of the county needs and deserves good roads it is that section. The meeting was presided over by Dr. E. W. Ford and Henry Hobbs acted as secretary.

Judge Jno. B. Wilson, Hon. R. E. Woods and Prof. Shultz made splendid addresses. The association should receive at least one hundred members as a result. The next meeting will be at Cromwell.

Riley—Anderson.

Prof. W. F. Anderson and Miss Alma Riley, of Hartford, went to Beaver Dam last Thursday and were quietly married at the Baptist parsonage, the pastor, Rev. R. L. Creal, performing the ceremony. The contracting parties took the train immediately after the ceremony for Bowling Green, Mammoth Cave and other points South, for a bridal trip. These are both popular young people who have the best wishes of all.

Judge Bob Bradley was badly defeated for Representative in Hopkins county, being beaten by H. F. S. Bailey by 600 majority.

THE N. E. A. IS NOW IN SESSION AT OAKLAND

Monster Crowd Of Delegates In Attendance At Educational Meeting.

Oakland, Cal., Aug. 15.—The National Education Association with eight to ten thousand delegates present will convene here to-morrow. It will be the fifty-third annual convocation of educators of the United States. Dr. Joseph Swain, president of Swarthmore, will call the convention to order.

Dr. David Starr Jordan, president of the association and chancellor of Stanford University, will address the convention to-morrow on "The Teacher and War;" Elmer Ellsworth Brown, chancellor of New York University, will speak on "Educational Progress of Fifteen Years," and Mrs. Phillip Snowden, wife of the member of the British Parliament from Blackburn, England, will talk on "Women and War."

Only two general sessions each week for the two weeks of the convention are scheduled, but there will be scores of departmental meetings.

Among the educators who will address the various meetings are Madame Maria Montessori, of Rome, exponent of a system of child education; Philander P. Claxton, United States Commissioner of Education; Ernesto Nelso, director of secondary education, Argentine Republic; Ferdinand Buisson, of Paris, member of the French Chamber of Deputies, and Mrs. Ella Flagg Young, superintendent of schools, Chicago.

A lively campaign for the election of the next president of the N. E. A. was in full swing to-day.

Dr. David Bancroft Johnson, president of Winthrop College, South Carolina, and Miss Grace O'Strachan, district superintendent of schools in Brooklyn, N. Y., seemed the leading candidates. Dr. Johnson withdrew from the race for the office last year in favor of Dr. David Starr Jordan.

NOTICE OF CONTEST IS FILED BY L. P. TANNER

At Owensboro, Saturday, Ben. D. Ringo, Commonwealth's Attorney, was served with notice of a contest of his nomination in the recent primary, by Deputy Sheriff James Howard, on behalf of Lawrence P. Tanner, the unsuccessful candidate against Mr. Ringo.

It is alleged in the notice served on Mr. Ringo that from ten to twenty-five votes were counted for him in each and every precinct in Daviess, Ohio, McLean and Hancock counties erroneously, or by fraud, more than should have been certified from the face of the ballots. The same number, according to the notice, should have been counted for the contestant. The returns of the election officers, it is charged, are untrue and incorrect in this.

"Bribery by you, or your agents, by payment of money for votes, which influenced as many as 200 persons to cast their votes for you that would have been cast for me," is charged in the notice.

A recount of the ballots in each of the precincts in the four counties is asked, and finally it is stated that the contestant will pray the court to have his name placed on the regular election ballot in November to be voted for, instead of that of the contestant.

Answer to the notice will be filed by the contestee within a short time after filing the notice in the Circuit Court Clerk's office.

The majority of Ringo in the four counties of the district was 221.

We are sorry that this contest has been brought by Mr. Tanner, for we do not believe that Mr. Ringo, nor anyone acting for him, was guilty of any crooked dealing in the recent primary, especially in the manner as charged, and we feel confident that the many friends of Mr. Ringo throughout the district are of the same opinion. Mr. Ringo is an honest, conscientious and faithful official. It is a matter of general regret among Democrats that Mr. Tanner has seen fit to thus mar Democratic prospects and cast a reflection upon a man of such upright character as Mr. Ringo.

Fatal Quarrel Over Land.

Somerset, Ky., Aug. 14.—Quarrelling over a tract of land, the value of which is but a few dollars, Jesse Morgan, fifty-eight years old, last night shot and instantly killed Dudley

Whitaker, thirty-five, at the former's home, east of this city. Neither man had ever before been in trouble and both were highly esteemed as citizens. A Deputy Sheriff brought Morgan to jail here this morning. The killing is the second to occur in Pulaski county within the week.

LATT McLAUGHLIN HANDS MORROW NICE PACKAGE

Madisonville, Ky., Aug. 14.—Latt F. McLaughlin, defeated candidate for the Republican gubernatorial nomination, whose vote in the recent State-wide primary was negligible, has sent the following letter of condolence to Edwin P. Morrow, the party's nominee, who swept the State overwhelmingly:

"Madisonville Ky., Aug. 12, 1915.
"Mr. Edwin P. Morrow,
Somerset, Ky.

"Dear Sir: I hope that you will accept this letter of condolence in the same spirit in which it is written, as the expression of my heartfelt sympathy for you as the Republican nominee for Governor of Kentucky, by the grace of an unworthy and antiquated organization of political slaves, and bucked and gagged by a liquor-controlled mob, at Lexington June 15, assembled by a call at the request of perfidy, corruption and dishonor; for, now, you must of necessity spend some of your time and means in a doomed campaign, as you have no more chance to win than a snowball has to live in hades. You committed suicide at Lexington and victory for our party was there assassinated. The trap closed on us August 7, and the dead-fall will get us November 2, unless your soul awakens from selfishness and you have the magnanimity to withdraw before the certificate of nomination is issued to you.

Yours truly,
"LATT F. McLAUGHLIN."

Of Interest To Farmers.

County Agent W. W. Browder wishes to make the following announcement to the people of Ohio county, that he will have Dr. Robt. Graham, head of the Biological Department of State University, Lexington, Ky., or one of his associates at the following places and dates and will give an illustrated lecture on Hog Cholera. He should be heard by all who are interested in the least in hogs and any others who would like to come. It is free to all and it is hoped to have large audiences at each of these places. Don't miss this opportunity of gaining information on hogs and hog raising.

Mrs. Belle Bethel Dead.

Mrs. Belle Bethel, widow of the late Dr. Bethel, died at her residence in Henderson last Thursday at 1:30 o'clock p. m. of stomach trouble and complications. Her remains were interred in the Henderson cemetery Saturday afternoon.

The deceased was the daughter of the late Francis and Susan Sullenger, of near Hartford. Mr. James Sullenger, of Owensboro, and Frank Sullenger, living on the old homestead, 5 miles east of Hartford, are the only surviving children of a large family. They were both in attendance at the funeral.

NIGHT RAIDERS DESTROY A "SOFT DRINK" SHACK

Dawson Springs, Aug. 15.—The "soft drink" shack of William Orten situated just over the Hopkins county line in Caldwell county on the outskirts of this place, was destroyed by a party of men numbering between 50 and 100 last night.

Shots were fired and the building riddled. Orten was recently forced to close his establishment at this place and constructed the shack which was burned down Saturday night. Sunday he rebuilt and had intended to start in again this morning.

MOOSERS TO BE IN RUNNING IN 1916

Roosevelt Has Spoken and It Is Settled.

PARTY WILL HAVE CANDIDATE

For President—Has Important Mission To Perform, Say Leaders.

TAKES WHACK AT DEMOCRATS

(By Gilson Gardner.)
Washington, Aug. 16.—The Progressive party will have its candidate in the Presidential race of 1916.

That much is now settled. Col. Roosevelt had spoken and before he spoke nearly all the Progressive leaders had expressed themselves to the same effect. Gov. Hiram W. Johnson, of California, is prominently mentioned in connection with the nomination.

One member of the Progressive party, William H. Childs, of Brooklyn, says: "I believe the Progressive party has a very important mission as regards the Presidential election of 1916 and that is to continue its party organization as a place to which all independent voters can rally in case the platform and candidates put forward by the other parties do not warrant the confidence of the independent thinking votes in all parties."

Victor Murdock, chairman of the Progressive Party National Committee, has expressed his opinion in a widely published statement, calling attention to the fact that the Republicans contemplate a reactionary candidate and platform and that the present is just the time for the Progressives to rally for the things they stand for.

Perhaps the best reason for holding the Progressive party together is the fact that by maintaining their party organization and naming the candidate, the Progressives hold a veto power over the reactionaries. With a Progressive candidate in the field, standing on a Progressive platform, no Elihu Root can be elected to the Presidency. The alternative may or may not be Woodrow Wilson. Nothing could be worse than an Elihu Root managed by a William Barnes, financed by Wall Street, and platformed by the inheritors of Mark Hanna and his school of politics. A veto on that is the best service the Progressives could possibly render to their country.

The Wilson Administration—that might be the beneficiary of a divided opposition—has its faults; and the worst of them is the Bourbon Democracy which is the Wilson reliance in the Senate and the House of Representatives. Another is the Secret Caucus which, with Wilson's approval, has been enthroned in both branches of Congress. And there are other sins which, in the general casting up of political accounts must go on the debit side of the Wilson ledger, but when all these sins have been weighed, they are as sand in the balance compared to the Administration proposed by the Crane, Penrose, Tawney, Gallinger, Barnes, Root aggregation. Choosing between them is simple.

The Progressives will hold an early convention. Their platform and candidate will take the lead. It will challenge the two conventions which are to follow.

CALL IS MADE BY THE U. S. FOR INFORMATION

Washington, Aug. 11.—American manufacturers of war supplies have been asked by the War Department for information concerning their facilities, with particular reference to what service the United States Government could expect from them in cases of emergency.

Notice.

At a meeting of the tobacco growers held at Hartford, Aug. 14, there was a committee appointed to formulate a plan by which tobacco may be delivered at Hartford. This committee is to make its report Aug. 28, at 10 o'clock a. m. All tobacco raisers are urged to be present.

ENTIRE FISCAL COURT INDICTED IN BULLITT

For Failure To Keep the County Roads In Proper Condition.

Shelbyville, Ky., Aug. 11.—Indictments against the members of the Bullitt County Fiscal Court and the County Road Engineer were returned by the grand jury here on the charge of neglect of duty through failure to keep the public roads in good condition. No arrests have been made yet.

The action of the grand jury today followed more than a year of disagreement between the county officials and the citizens as to the method of providing money for the upkeep of the county highways.

Up until a few years ago every able-bodied man between the ages of 18 and 50 was liable for four days of free work in the course of a year on the roads. It was also the custom then to appropriate $10 a mile for the upkeep of every first-class road and $20 for those of the second-class.

When this plan was abolished the Fiscal Court voted to appropriate $10 a mile for every road, provided that the citizens living on the highway gave an equal amount. So much opposition developed against this plan, however that it was finally abandoned by the officials.

For the last year there has been very little work done on any of the roads in this county and the grand jury found no trouble in obtaining witnesses to testify before it in the investigation into the matter it has just completed.

Suffrage In Georgia.

Georgia is one of the three States which refuse to admit women lawyers to practice in the courts. Therefore, Mrs. Hale brought a test case, which was appealed to the Supreme Court. Meanwhile the Legislature of Georgia is considering a bill which will permit women to become attorneys. The Atlanta Constitution has a fine editorial in which it sums up the situation: "The Georgia Legislature cannot afford not to pass this bill. The present law is an anachronism, clogging real progress. We should lead at least the three remaining States, and restore to woman a right that ought never to have been taken away."

Cautious.

"Any rattlesnakes around here?" "What's your business?" asked the boy with the big straw hat. "What has that to do with it." "Well, the last man who looked around here for summer board asked me a lot of questions like that, and when I told him there wasn't any rattlesnakes or mosquitoes or anything, he said he was a naturalist and he guessed the place wouldn't suit him."

DESERVED TRIBUTE TO THE FAITHFUL HORSE

The author of this toast to the horse is unknown, but it equals Vest's famous tribute to the dog:

"Here's to that bundle of sentient nerves, with the heart of a woman, the eye of a gazelle, the courage of a gladiator, the docility of a slave, the proud carriage of a king and the blind obedience of a soldier; the companion of the desert plain, that turns the moist furrows in the spring in order that all the world may have abundant harvest; that furnishes the sport of kings, that with blazing eye and distended nostril fearlessly leads our greatest Generals through carnage and renown; whose blood forms one of the ingredients that go to make the ink in which all history is written, and who finally, in black trappings, pulls the humblest of us to the newly soddied threshold of eternity."

A SHATTERED ROMANCE OF ANTE-BELLUM DAYS

Canton, O., Aug. 14.—A strange story of youthful folly and attempted requital after half a century was told in Common Pleas Court today by Mrs. Josiah Bowen, 70 years old, during the trial of her suit for divorce from Josiah Bowen, 72 years old, a retired farmer and Civil War veteran.

"I was engaged to Josiah Bowen when a young girl just 50 years ago," declared the gray-haired Mrs. Bowen on the stand. "My father was proprietor of a hotel in Louisville then and Bowen was 22 years old. We were engaged for nearly a year and Josiah wronged me and then ran away to the war. Later I was married and moved away from Louisville, and, as I have since learned, Bowen was married, too."

His wife died. Two years ago we met again and Josiah said he wanted to make up to me for the wrong he had done me and we were married."

Mrs. Bowen further bared the secrets of a love story of the ante-bellum days and told the Court that the belated marriage had failed through Bowen's gross neglect and cruelty. Bowen, who is contesting the suit for divorce, denies being the father of the child born nearly 50 years ago and says he remarried in 1913 because of Mrs. Bowen's advances.

Married Seventy-One Years.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Nutt, of this city, celebrated their seventy-first wedding anniversary here Tuesday. They are both 90 years old. They have lived here 35 years, coming from Ohio. Twelve children were born to them, six of whom are living. There are 88 living descendants.—[Clinton, (Mo.) Cor. Kansas City Star.]

The Cheerful Pedestrian.

Auto accidents multiply, especially on Sunday. When the machines were first introduced they seemed likely to kill all the pedestrians, but now the owners are killing themselves much faster than they are killing us. If the statistics continue we shall be ahead in the game ultimately.—[Fredonia (New York) Censor.]

An Arouser Needed.

"What is the hardest part of your work as a lecturer?" asked the man designated as toastmaster. "As a rule," replied Mr. Speckins, "the hardest part of my work is waking the audience up after the man who introduces me has concluded his remarks."

A Pitched Battle.

"From the viewpoint of an innocent bystander," philosophically remarked the old codger, "I believe that the keenest competition I know of occurs when two chronic dyspeptics get together and compare their symptoms."

OHIO COUNTY FARMERS VISIT

Other Farming Sections
With Profit.

SEE BIG THINGS BEING DONE

In Cattle Raising—Wooden Silo Appears To Be Most Available.

A GREAT THING FOR FARMERS

On August 2d Farm Demonstrator W. W. Browder and some farmers, all of whom are contemplating the building of silos and also interested in the growing of alfalfa and other modern farming, left Hartford at 9 o'clock in automobiles for Bowling Green and other adjacent territories. We stopped at Beaver Dam and gathered up others, making a crowd of 36. We left Beaver Dam at 9:30 and arrived at Morgantown at 11:30, where we got our dinner and immediately proceeded to Bowling Green.

When about one and a-half miles from Bowling Green one car broke down and had to wait for another car to pull us in, so we reached Bowling Green at 3:15 and sent the broken car to the shop. We doubled up in others and proceeded to the farm of M. O. Hughes, our district farm agent, who took great pleasure in showing us his magnificent farm. First we saw his 10 acres of fine alfalfa which had already made him two tons of fine hay and was ready to cut again. This field will be cut twice more this season. He then took us to his large cattle barn where he feeds 300 head of cattle per year. It was here that we found the open shed for cattle feeding of which we have read so much, and find it very convenient. We also saw there the wood stove silo in its true sense. Seeing its weak points, we soon decided that we should not build this kind. We then went to his clover field where we saw a plain demonstration of what time will do for soil—decidedly in favor of the time.

Mr. Hughes then took those whose car had broken down in his car and we went to the State Normal farm, also managed by Mr. Hughes. There we found another large field of red clover and alfalfa mixed, and some of the finest hay we ever saw. Mr. Hughes told us that this field had already made four tons of hay to the acre and would be cut again, and there was also a nice field of sweet clover there. We then returned to the Mansard Hotel for the night.

The next morning we started out about 8:30 and went about 10 miles on the Louisville and Nashville pike to Will Closs' farm. There we found three large concrete silos, beyond a doubt the best to build, but a little expensive. Mr. Closs also feeds about 400 head of cattle. We enjoyed looking at his fine barns. He has things arranged very conveniently.

We then went to the place of Mr. J. R. Chaney & Sons, who have the largest cattle barns in Kentucky. They have twelve hundred acres of land and feed six or seven hundred cattle per year. Here we found 100 head of baby beaves almost ready for market. These cattle would weigh about 800 pounds each and were about one year old. Mr. Chaney purchased these cattle in Panhandle, Texas, last November and they have been in his feed barns since.

It was on this farm that we first found the home-made silo—simply built out of rough green lumber. He has three of these which hold 300 tons of silage each. After viewing his nice cattle and inspecting his barns and alfalfa fields, we went to Mr. C. A. Smith's place. After inspecting his barns and home-made silos, which we found to be of the first-class, built of rough green lumber, we became thoroughly convinced that this is the silo for us to build for the present, being assured that it can be built for $100 or less and that the silage keeps perfectly. We don't see any reason why we farmers in Ohio county should be without silos, as they will pay a large per cent. on the investment.

We found that these feeders, realizing the value of manure, keep their cattle in their barns during the entire feeding season, making hundreds of loads of manure, which is hauled and spread on the fields, making the ground rich.

From Mr. Smith's we returned to Bowling Green for dinner and started for home at 1:30, reaching Hartford at 6 p. m., all feeling that we had been amply repaid for our time and money.

We see no reason why the farmers of Ohio county should be without cattle on our lands, with the silo and clover fields to furnish such cheap, rich feed, when we can have this for such a little outlay of money. We know it will be bound to pay a large per cent. on the investment, so let us get busy and keep pace with our sister counties.

We feel that we owe much of these things we are learning to our never-tiring farm agent, W. W. Browder, who has spent his life farming and has made a success of farming and studying farm problems.

PEACE PROPHETS NAME OCTOBER 1

As Date When European War Will End.

TWO SAMPLES OF EXPRESSION

From Reliable Sources On the Matter—Their Reasons
Are Opposite.

BOTH AGREE AS TO THE TIME

"When do you think the war will be over?" That is the first question put to a man just from Europe. The answers are as varying as the question is unvarying. Two men with unusual facilities for knowing what is going on have fixed the date as October 1, 1915. But their reasons are as opposite as day and night. The first to express himself is the correspondent of an American newspaper who returned to this country after many months in Berlin. He has thoroughly imbibed the German view. He said:

"The war should end about October 1 next. Germany has Russia paralyzed now. A few more blows and she will be incapable of making trouble for months to come. She may make an armistice, but even if she does not she can be held back by a comparatively small force. That will release Von Hindenburg and 2,000,000 veteran soldiers for a blow at the French. Certainly the Germans will go through the allies' lines and gain the French channel ports. That will cut France and Great Britain apart. France may be willing to make a separate peace, but whether she does or not Great Britain will be so severely menaced that she will be ready to quit. Then you will see Great Britain and Germany dictating terms of peace to the rest of the allies."

The other man is also an American, who has been in Italy, France, Germany, Austria and Great Britain since the beginning of the war. He said:

"Fighting will end about the beginning of October. Austria is on the verge of collapse. An appeal has been made to the Pope to intervene in her behalf. The Italian Government has been approached and the Vatican has sent representations to President Wilson, asking his assistance in bringing about a truce. The plan is this: In a few weeks Italy will have conquered all the Austrian territory she demanded. The allies will have taken Constantinople. Treaties providing for the entrance of Greece, Bulgaria and Rumania into the war on the side of the allies are already signed. Every effort is being made to bring Holland into the arrangement. The allies hope that increasing friction between the United States and Germany will make us, morally at least, an ally of the Entente Powers. When the proper time has arrived the Balkans will declare war and Germany will ask for a truce. The allies will secretly ask that the Hohenzollerns abdicate and Emperor William will offer himself as a sacrifice on the altar of peace. His dynasty will be followed by a German republic which will include the Germanic part of Austria. The rest of that empire will be distributed as nearly as possible along radical lines."

"Germany already realizes that she cannot win. She knows that in a contest of endurance the allies have the odds all in their favor. To go on with the war would gain her nothing and she cannot afford to pursue an empty victory, even if it could be won. When approached through neutral channels she will be ready enough to listen to any reasonable terms, especially when several of the now neutral nations are arrayed against her."

These guesses are as good as anybody else's. They are offered for what they are worth. Coming, as they do, from two wholly dissimilar sources, it is curious to note that both propose to make the weak pay the bill for the stronger. In the former Belgium, France and Russia and Serbia must bear the burden of the peace settlement. In the latter Austria and Turkey are chosen for the role. [Leslie's Weekly.]

Suffragists Address Teachers.

Some time since the president of the Kentucky Equal Rights Association responded to an invitation to address the State Educational Association of West Virginia on suffrage at the meeting in Charleston. After the address the association adopted strong resolutions urging their men teachers and superintendents to vote for the ratification of the woman suffrage amendment now before the people of West Virginia. The Department of Labor also determined to send the assistant instructor, Miss McChesney, to as many of the county teachers' institutes as she could reach to talk up child labor and the new weights and measures bill and woman suffrage. The department will defray all traveling expenses.

The Kentucky Educational Association, though it has been urged to do so by prominent suffragists who have also done conspicuous service in Kentucky educational work, has never found space on its program even for an address on woman suffrage.

MRS. BRECKINRIDGE TO TOUR SUFFRAGE STATES

The Kentucky Equal Rights Association has voted to send its president, Mrs. Desha Breckinridge, on a three weeks' tour this fall into the campaign States which this fall will vote on the admission of women to equal suffrage privileges with men.

Mrs. Breckinridge will speak in New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania and perhaps in Massachusetts, the four "campaign States" in which the question will be put to a vote of the people. She will leave about September 15.

The Clerk Guaranteed It.

"A customer came into my store the other day and said to one of my clerks 'have you anything that will cure diarrhoea?' and my clerk went and got him a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and said to him, 'if this does not cure you, I will not charge you a cent for it.' So he took it home and came back in a day or two and said he was cured," writes J. H. Berry & Co., Salt Creek, Va. Obtainable everywhere.

Didn't Pain Bobby.

"Bobby," said the woman in the tramway, severely, "why don't you get up and give your seat to father. Doesn't it pain you to see him reaching for the strap?"

"Not in a car," said Bobby. "Only at home."

Sometimes there isn't a whole lot of difference between a good fellow and a bad husband.

HAS EARLINGTON FOUND THE SAME?

The Answer Is Found in the Straightforward Statement of An Earlington Resident.

We have been reading week after week in the local press of Hartford citizens who have been rid of distressing kidney and bladder troubles by Doan's Kidney Pills, and we have often wondered whether the same high opinion of this medicine is to be found in our neighboring town. This frank and earnest statement by a well known and respected resident of Earlington will set this doubt at rest.

Mrs. Pearl Walton, Earlington, Ky., says: "I suffered from weak kidneys. I did not pay much attention to the trouble at first, but when I found that I had little control over the kidney secretions, I knew that something must be done. My rest was broken at night and in the morning I was tired and worn out. Doan's Kidney Pills cured me and my kidneys have been in good condition since."

Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Walton had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. (Advertisement)

HUSBAND RESCUED DESPAIRING WIFE

After Four Years of Discouraging
Conditions, Mrs. Bullock Gave
Up in Despair. Husband
Came to Rescue.

Catron, Ky.—In an interesting letter from this place, Mrs. Bettie Bullock writes as follows: "I suffered for four years, with womanly troubles, and during this time, I could only sit up for a little while, and could not walk anywhere at all. At times, I would have severe pains in my left side.

The doctor was called in, and his treatment relieved me for a while, but I was soon confined to my bed again. After that, nothing seemed to do me any good.

I had gotten so weak I could not stand, and I gave up in despair.

At last, my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I commenced taking it. From the very first dose, I could tell it was helping me. I can now walk two miles without its tiring me, and am doing all my work."

If you are all run down from womanly troubles, don't give up in despair. Try Cardui, the woman's tonic. It has helped more than a million women, in its 50 years of continuous success, and should surely help you, too. Your druggist has sold Cardui for years. He knows what it will do. Ask him. ## The Hartford Herald

HEBER MATTHEWS, FRANK L. FELIX, EDITORS.
FRANK L. FELIX, Pub. and Prop'r

Entered at the Hartford post-office as mail matter of the second class.

At last, it seems, the Democrats of Kentucky are to be granted a platform convention by "the powers that be." It would have been more satisfactory to the bulk of the voters some months ago, but upon the idea that it is "better late than never," we welcome the event. The platform will no doubt be all that any Democrat could desire.

Already the seductive voice of the Republican agitator who seeks to create division in the Democratic ranks is heard in the land. He well knows that only by this means can his party win. He seeks to create disaffection in various ways—usually by stirring up the resentment of men whose choice of some candidates failed to win. This is an old game and no loyal Democrat should pay any attention to it.

Mr. Latt McLaughlin, of Madisonville, who was a candidate in the recent primary for the Republican gubernatorial nomination, comes out in a jumbled and scornful card to his opponent, Mr. Morrow, in which he holds the latter up in a very bad light. Mr. McLaughlin will hardly win anything by this. The public loves a game loser, whether in politics or anything else. Mr. McLaughlin need not worry. Mr. Stanley will attend to Mr. Morrow's case in due time and with the utmost satisfaction to the Democratic party.

Perhaps no man in the State felt more humiliated and crestfallen last year than did Mr. Stanley in his defeat at the polls. It was a costly campaign and his political downfall was crushing. Yet what did he do? Did he sulk and get sore? Not a little bit. He dived right into the campaign and from then on till the final day of election he made more speeches for his opponent than the latter did for himself. Mr. Stanley is the embodiment of a very able man—broadminded, undaunted and a political warrior of the stalwart type.

Despite the usual complaint about the weather, both locally and throughout the country, it is evident that in these sections abundant crops will be raised this year. Of course there will be complaint from some quarters. The chronic grumbler, like the poor, is always with us. But the prospect for good times looks bright. There is nothing that can discount the effect of abundant crops. Let us rejoice and be glad that although nearly all the outside world is at war, we are at peace, with the old earth giving us of her abundance to keep us fed and clothed.

Upon the third page of The Herald to-day will be found an excellent article, written by one of Ohio county's foremost farmers, giving an account of a visit of himself and other progressive men of his calling over into Warren county, and what they saw. It is a splendid description of a very profitable trip. There is no reason why the majority of Ohio county farmers should not be up with those of other sections in progress and success. We have the intellect and the land. All we need is action and the spirit of progress. Read his narrative and ponder over it.

It seems generally agreed among Democrats that Mr. Stanley's majority in November will or ought to be about the same over his opponent as it was in the recent primary. And it will be if there are no defections from the ticket. Kentucky is a Democratic State—there is no doubt about that. It has only been when there was a split in the party upon some question that the Republicans have won—not by virtue of the most votes, but clearly the fault of the Democrats themselves. There is no reason for any party division now. A full Democratic vote will win a big victory.

15TH ANNUAL SESSION BAPTIST ASSOCIATION

AN ARMED MOB TAKES LEO FRANK FROM PRISON

Warden and Guards Overpowered—Disposal of the Body a Mystery.

Milledgeville, Ga., Aug. 17.—A mob variously estimated as made up of from twenty-five to seventy-five men, after overpowering the warden, superintendent and guards of the Georgia State prison here, took Leo M. Frank from the dormitory at 11 o'clock last night.

First reports that they may have been friends of Frank's were dispelled when a prisoner in the dormitory stated that he heard a member of the mob say that Frank's body would be placed to-morrow on the grave of Mary Phagan, at Marietta.

Frank was serving a life term for the murder of the girl.

The mob was orderly, but worked with quick precision. Eight automobiles took the men to within a short distance of the prison. First all telephone wires leading to the prison and all except one from Milledgeville were cut. Five men went to the house of J. T. Smith, warden, covered him with pistols and stood guard over him. Other men went to the house of J. M. Burke, superintendent of the prison, and held him under cover of their guns. Practically every other member of the mob rushed to the stockade gate nearest the dormitory where Frank was being housed. Only yesterday did physicians discharge him from the hospital, where he had been since being murderously assaulted in the dormitory.

Previous to the attack wires leading to the prison itself had been cut. Frank was placed in an automobile and rushed in the direction of Eatonton.

The attack was shortly before midnight. The warden and most of the guards were sleeping on a rear porch of the main building in which the prisoners are confined. Both he and the guards were handcuffed, after which the party entered the prison and removed Frank.

Eatonton, Ga., Aug. 17.—The men who took Leo M. Frank from the State prison farm at Milledgeville last night had not passed through here at 1:30 o'clock this morning.

Augusta, Ga., Aug. 17.—Sheriffs' posses have been ordered out in all the counties surrounding Baldwin county, in which the State prison farm is located, to search for Leo M. Frank.

PROMISED HE'D MARRY IF NOMINATED AND DOES SO

Mayfield, Ky., Aug. 12.—Judge Bunk Gardner, Police Judge of Mayfield, and Miss Winnie Winn were united in wedlock at 6:30 o'clock this evening in the parlors of the First Baptist church with Dr. H. N. Barbee, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, officiating.

Judge Gardner received the nomination for Circuit Judge of this district in last Saturday's Democratic primary election, and his marriage is the fulfillment of a promise made during the campaign, when one of his opponents urged the voters not to vote for Judge Gardner, because he was a single man. Judge Gardner replied in his speech that if he should be nominated that five days after his nomination he would be married to the sweetest girl in Mayfield.

He says that this is only the beginning of making good every promise he made during the campaign. They left to-night for Chicago and other points.

Mrs. J. H. Rowe, of Owensboro, and her daughter, Mrs. Botts, of Jacksonville, Fla., and Mr. Newton Fields, a grandson, of Owensboro, visited relatives in Hartford last week.

Mr. W. P. Maddox, Hartford, R. 4, left at The Herald office Monday a peach grown on his farm that measured 10 1/4 inches in circumference and weighed 11 ounces. Who can beat it?

The McHenry Manufacturing and Machine Co. have opened up a first-class garage in connection with their regular machine shop and repair work. Carry accessories and also do vulcanizing. 3014

Mr. John T. Moore, of Elizabethtown, who had been spending a few days with friends and relatives in Hartford, returned home Monday. His wife and children will remain in Hartford several days.

Landlord J. P. Jasper has returned from a trip over into Illinois, where he visited his mother, who was ill. She has recovered and although in her 90th year, she seems destined to reach the century mark.

Judge Jno. B. Wilson has called a special term of the Ohio County Fiscal Court for Tuesday, August 24th to consider some important matters pertaining to the roads and bridges of this county, as well as other important matters.

Misses Ola Shaver, of Madisonville, Ky., and Juniata Long, of Nashville, Tenn., who have been visiting the family of Mr. E. T. Williams, and who attended the dedication of the new Methodist church last Sunday, returned home Tuesday morning.

Mr. J. C. Stewart, of Weir City, Kan., who, together with his wife, is spending a month or two with friends and relatives in this, his native county, was a pleasant caller at The Herald office Monday. While here he renewed his allegiance to The Herald by advancing the date on his subscription to May, 1917.

Capt. Earl Bennett, mention of whose illness has heretofore been made in these columns, is thought to be slowly improving. Capt. Bennett is now, and has been for the past month, in the Government Hospital at San Francisco, Cal. His family are also living in San Francisco so that they may be near him at all times.

The following were among The Herald's recent callers: Mrs. Ella Turner and daughter Miss Pearl Turner, Livermore; J. M. Shultz, Prentiss; R. N. Duke, Hartford, Route 1; Mrs. Annie Steel and Miss Edna Black, city; Eld. Birch Shields, Beaver Dam; A. C. Porter, Hartford, Route 7, Democratic nominee for Circuit Court Clerk.

In another column will be found the announcement of Hartford College, opening its 36th year's work, September 6. This school has no superior in its line of work. It has a faculty of very able teachers and the building is large, new and splendidly equipped. High school work is made a specialty. It fully merits the splendid patronage it enjoys.

The special term of the Ohio Circuit Court to try the alleged "possum hunter" cases will convene in Hartford next Monday. There have been 63 indictments in all returned in connection with this trouble. Some of these cases have developed since the adjournment of the June term of court. Judge Birkhead was in Hartford Saturday and made arrangements for a special grand jury at this term.

The dedication of the new Methodist church here passed off nicely last Sunday. Bishop Atkins preached a splendid sermon to an audience that filled the large church. A trained choir furnished good singing. There was abundance of free dinner for everybody. The remaining debt of about $2,300 on the full $15,000 for church, ground and appurtenances was made good and everything passed off satisfactorily.

A Great Plant.
Through the courtesy of the Rapier Grain & Seed Co., by their Mr. J. W. Wood, the publisher of The Herald was shown through their mammoth feed manufacturing plant at Owensboro last Friday. The plant covers several acres of ground on the river front and has the capacity of manufacturing 20 carloads of feed per day. The raw material for the feed product, which is of the very best to be had, is unloaded from barges on the river and railroad cars by means of an endless chain. The chains are in sections so arranged that the hay, corn, alfalfa or any other product, can be carried from the barges or railroad car to any part of any of their numerous large storage and manufacturing rooms. In fact, everything is done by machinery of the latest and most improved patterns. If you have never seen their plant you should do so when you go to Owensboro. What you will see is well worth an hour or so of your time.

Card From Judge Birkhead.
Owensboro, Ky., Aug. 12, 1915.

To the Democrats of Ohio County:—Being unable to see and thank in person each of my friends, I want to say through your valuable paper that I am profoundly grateful to the Democrats of Ohio county, and other parts of the Sixth Judicial District, for their friendship and support given me in the recent Democratic primary election. For those who opposed me I have the kindest feeling. I will attempt to show my appreciation of their support in the faithful discharge of my duty as a public official. With a solid Democracy in the November election, the party will go to victory, not only in this District, but in the State of Kentucky.

Very respectfully,
T. F. BIRKHEAD.

Card From Mr. Likens.
To the Democrats of Ohio County:

For the expression of confidence by an overwhelming vote in the recent primary, I am sincerely grateful. Though unsuccessful, it is a great consolation to know the friends at home stood by me. I shall endeavor to so conduct myself that you will never regret having given me your active support. While I am disappointed, of course, my faith in the party is not shaken, and I trust you will give to each of the nominees the same loyal support that you gave to me and thereby assist in bringing about a great victory in November.

Yours for service,
G. B. LIKENS.

SENSATIONAL AND STUPENDOUS HIPPODROME SHOW

Greatest Acts of Vaudeville and Circus Booked For the Kentucky State Fair, Sept. 13-18

LOWANDES EQUESTRIANS

FRAMED by the giant oval and lofty dome of the $100,000 Pavilion, there will be offered each evening, beginning at 7:30, at the Kentucky State Fair an aggregation of feature acts which are declared to constitute one of the greatest entertainments of the kind ever offered at a State Fair.

Secretary Dent has bent every energy toward securing turns which will provide a vivid contrast and a decided sensation, and the show as a whole will live up to the billing of Hippodrome.

Supreme among the banner attractions listed stands Oscar Lowandes' equestrian act, in which Lowandes and his beautiful girl partner perform amazing bareback stunts and tallyho feats. The act is splendidly staged and costumed and aside from its marvels of horsemanship and acrobatic art is as picturesque and pleasing to the eye as sculptured groups from a master hand.

Life, motion, color and thrill will characterize the turn of the Hassan Ben Ali Troupe of Arabian dancers, sword twirlers, leapers and tumblers.

The Cevene Troupe are aerial artists who are said to perform more dare-devil feats to the minute than any competitors in the show world. They do all the sensational midair flying and trapeze balancing ever attempted and, it is claimed, add hair raising accomplishments individual to themselves alone.

The Dellmeade Company is a musical aggregation of ten which boasts five classical beauties who are said to be stunning in looks and gowning. Their offering is likewise said to be a distinct novelty and one of the most delightful ever appearing in vaudeville.

The Piccolini Acrobats are absolute muscular marvels, and the lifting, balancing, carrying and wrestling offered by them are sensational in the extreme.

In entertaining contrast to these artists will be an aggregation of acrobatic comedians who combine uproariously funny clowning with some really skillful and interesting acrobatic work.

Thirty-five richly and kaleidoscopically arrayed musicians designated as the Royal Hussar Band and an equally large number of harmony dispensers known as the Scotch Highlander Players will be an important and enjoyable feature of the Hippodrome and night horse show exhibitions.

Pheasant, Duck, Goose and Deer New Feature For Kentucky State Fair

A WONDERFUL, instructive and interesting exhibition planned as a new feature for the Kentucky State Fair will be the showing of every variety of pheasant, deer, wild duck and goose native to this country. The State Fair management has apportioned spacious grounds for the pens and cages in which the nucleus of a wonderful zoo is to be introduced during the celebration of Sept. 13-18, and, in fact, the specimens of pheasant already secured by the Fair management under the auspices and direction of the State Fish and Game Commission place Kentucky's collection second only to the largest in the world, which is a part of the zoo at Brooklyn, N. Y.

The State Fish and Game Commission is making every effort to replenish the almost entirely depleted stock of pheasants in Kentucky and has recently imported from England large flocks of breeders, which have been placed throughout the state. Special precautions have been taken for the protection of the birds, and farmers on whose land the pheasants have been placed have been feeding them regularly and report that they have become quite tame. Quail will also be included in the importation of birds, and 5,000 will be brought into the state from Mexico. This variety of quail is native to Kentucky, but Mexico is the only place where the birds can be secured for restocking.

Two thousand five hundred pairs of English ring neck pheasants were liberated in Kentucky recently, and a large number of Prince of Wales pheasants were placed in the lowlands of the Purchase, to which section they are especially adapted. Reeves' pheasants have been sent in large quantities to the mountains and varicolored pheasants to the interior sections of the state.

All of these and every other existing variety of pheasant will be exhibited in the State Fair collection, as will the Japanese, English fallow and native American deer.

Special cut rate excursions will be run into Louisville over all lines and from all parts of the state during Kentucky State Fair week, Sept. 13-18.

Coupon books of six day tickets at $2 and six night tickets at $1 for the Kentucky State Fair, Sept. 13-18, will be on sale Aug. 15 until Sept. 11.

GIANT CENTIPEDES.

A Foot Long and Armed With Forty Odd Poison Laden Claws.

Centipedes have nowhere a good reputation. Some of those in the tropics are terrible creatures indeed. The giant centipede of Trinidad and Venezuela is sometimes a foot long and can do very serious harm. Its foremost pair of feet are modified into supplementary jaws, which are fanglike and may inflict a powerful bite. Furthermore, each has a poison gland at its base that sends into the wound a venom deadly to small creatures and very painful even to mankind.

Moreover, the sharp claw of each of the forty-one feet is poisonous likewise, so that when the animal crawls over the soft skin of the human arm it leaves a trail of red, inflamed spots. It is dangerous to knock the centipede off, for instantly the creature drives the claws more deeply into the flesh and sends a greater amount of venom into each puncture. It may also take hold with its jaws.

When the centipede seizes its prey or is itself caught by an enemy it coils itself around its antagonist and grips it tenaciously with all its legs. It is therefore a very unlucky object to tackle. In this connection it is interesting to note that many myriapods are brightly banded with black and yellow, contrasting tints that show conspicuously against the dark soil of the forests where they abound. The giant centipede is a shining mahogany brown, with the legs bluish and ringed with yellow.

A singular fact about centipedes (which, in spite of the name, rarely have 100 feet and may have as few as fifteen) is that the number of legs is invariably odd and may vary in number even in specimens that belong to the same species. All are carnivorous. The smaller kinds feed on worms and grubs, the larger on any living prey they can overcome. They are, therefore, of service in destroying many noxious insects. Captive specimens are exceedingly cleanly in their habits and go through elaborate toilets, brushing their legs one by one and the sides of the body with their jaw feet, which are furnished with a mat of hairs adapted to this purpose.—Youth's Companion.

FAMOUS OLD TROTTERS.

Many of Them Were Mere Drudges Before They Attained Fame.

It is a remarkable fact that many of the most famous horses of the trotting turf years ago were not appreciated until after they had arrived at maturity. With a great many the trotting quality was discovered by accident.

It is on record that Flora Temple was once sold for $43, and the great mare Princess, dam of Happy Medium, brought her breeder about $40. Tacony pulled a stage and Mack likewise. Abdullah would have been made to haul a fish cart had not his lofty spirit rebelled at the indignity. Billy Button was used as a runner to force the pace of Peralto. Goldsmith Maid was once sold for $100, and the dam of Ethan Allen was sold at the age of ten for $35.

Dutchman worked in a brick yard, so did old Columbus, and Andrew Jackson was foaled in one. Charley B. was used to haul stone up from a quarry by derrick and pulley. Godolphin Arabian drew a watering cart in the streets of Paris. Justin Morgan was long a wheel horse in Vermont. The granddam of Monbars did farm drudgery. The dam of Billy Button hauled garden truck to market and pulled a milk wagon alternately. Gifford Morgan drew slabs from a sawmill and was at one time sold for $100.

The dam of Flying Morgan was used to peddle woodenware. The sire of Rarus was worked to a butcher cart, and it is said that the dam of Black Hawk also drew a butcher's cart. The first authentic account of Canadian Pilot places him in the hands of a Yankee peddler in New Orleans. The dam of Lady Griswold was used by a patent medicine vender. The dam of old Green Mountain Morgan ground apples in a cider mill.—Horseman.

Absurd Beliefs About Hedgehogs.

In olden days the hedgehog was accredited with the possession of many wonderful powers. Pliny and after him Aelian and others have related how it would climb apple and fig trees, shake down the fruit and afterward fall upon and impale the fruit on its spines and carry them off upon its back. The belief that it was in the habit of milking cows during the night is likewise a very old one.

Oregon's First Settlement.

The first settlement in Oregon was made at Fort Clatsop, near the mouth of the Columbia river, on the 23d day of March, 1811. The men comprising the group were prospective fur traders sent to the Pacific coast by John Jacob Astor. They had sailed from New York on board the ship Tonquin.

Didn't Have the Heart.

The young man had threatened suicide if she rejected him. And, although she did, he didn't.

"Why didn't he?" was asked.

"Said he'd given his heart to her."

"What's that got to do with it?"

"Oh, he didn't have the heart to kill himself."—Boston Truth.

Tried Him Out.

"That booby made a bluff at kissing me last night and quit."

"But he says you scratched his face, blackened his eyes and stabbed him with a hatpin."

"Well, a girl has to put up a little maidenly resistance."—Kansas City Journal.

PRINCE OF FORGERS.

His Work Was Autograph Letters, but He Became Too Brazen.

Irene Lucas, beyond all question, was the greatest counterfeiter of autograph letters, at least as regards amount produced, that the world has ever seen. Twenty-seven thousand letters, all from famous people, is no mean record and one that may remain forever unequalled.

It must be admitted that Lucas was exceptionally favored by the friendship of Michel Chasles, the famous French mathematician, who from 1861 to 1869 was a steady client and bought almost the total output, paying in all 140,000 francs. This was not a large sum, considering that among the letters he acquired were six from Alexander the Great to Aristotle, a challenge from Julius Caesar to Verceingetorix, three missives of Cleopatra addressed respectively to Cato, Caesar and Pompey; one from Gernius Julius to Jesus, one from Aeschylus to Pythagoras, twelve from Jeanne d'Arc, one from Judas to Mary Magdalene, one from Lazarus, ten from Pontius Pilate, one from Sappho, one from Mohammed to the king of France, excerpts from the writings of Caligula, Dante, Spinoza, Luther, Rubens, St. Jerome and a multitude of hardly lesser personalities.

It is true that Michel Chasles did make some objection to the fact that these letters were in French, whereas it is not stated historically that Caesar and Cleopatra, for example, were in the habit of using that tongue for their private correspondence. But Lucas parried this protest in a way that was in keeping with his dignity as a collector of famous letters by offering to take back all he had sold to Chasles and return to him the 140,000 francs. Chasles was so touched with this convincing proof of his sincerity that the discussion ending in his lending Lucas 20 louis to meet some pressing obligations.

How a man having need of $80 could return $28,000 requires a great mathematician to determine.

It was the greed of England in wishing to keep for Isaac Newton the honor of discovering the law of gravitation that caused the bubble to burst and deprived Lucas of a steady and very genteel occupation.

With such solemnity as befitted a striking proof of the world's indebtedness to France, Michel Chasles presented to the Academy of Sciences a letter from Blaise Pascal to Newton, dated May 20, 1654, and proving beyond all question that he (Pascal) was really the discoverer of the law usually attributed to Newton.

It is true that at the date of this letter Newton was hardly eleven years old—rather young to have attracted the attention of the great Pascal—but there was still another proof of the falsity of the document. The author is made to speak of "la mousse du cafe," and coffee was not introduced into France until seven years after his death.

All England arose and protested. They had given their gold medal to Michel Chasles, but they insisted on keeping universal gravitation.

Shortly afterward Lucas was brought to trial, and a sentence of two years' imprisonment ended a career not without entertaining elements.—Orville Peets in New York Tribune.

Maltese Muskrats.

One of the most objectionable of the pests that intrude into houses in Malta is the muskrat. Everything he touches is impregnated with the odor from which he derives his name. In a wine cellar he is worse than a dishonest butler. In a larder he is more destructive than a dozen cats. From pure wantonness he taints and renders unmarketable everything within his reach. His odor is so powerful and at the same time so penetrating that dozens of bottles of preserves may be ruined by his merely running over the bottles. The muskrat is a squeaking little animal who commits his enormities at night, and he adds insult to injury by disturbing the repose of the victims of his depredations.—London Standard.

Persian Bread.

The Persian native bread today is very little different from that used a thousand years ago. The Persian oven is built of smooth masonry work in the ground and is usually about the size of a barrel. Many of them have been used for a century. The dough is formed into thin sheets about a foot long and two feet wide and slapped against the side of the oven. It bakes in a few minutes.

Whole Hog or None.

"Whole hog or none" refers to Mohammed allowing his followers to eat all except one portion of a pig, but failing to mention what the portion was, so that if a Mohammedan did not leave pork strictly alone he might as well consume the whole hog as risk eating any part of it.

Might Just as Well.

"Why, don't you move into more comfortable quarters, old man?"

"I can't even pay the rent on this miserable hole."

"Well, since you don't pay rent why not get something better?"—Boston Transcript.

Bravery.

Willie—Paw, what's bravery? Paw—Bravery is something that makes a man lose the use of his legs when he wants to run, my son.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Know how to give without hesitation, how to lose without regret, how to acquire without meanness.

RUTH LAW LAWLESS SKIMMER OF THE SKY

With George Mayland, the "Miraculous Human Fly"

RUTH LAW.

RUTH LAW is "such a little queen," but she makes her big brothers of the wide blue sky sit up in their mono and biplanes and take notice when she sails into the far reaches of the empyrean and does stunts that even a bird would not dream of doing. And yet she has been flying only two years, is one of only two women fliers in the country and is still in her teens. She is just an ambitious, daring, feminine little slip who has become enamored of aerial work, does not know the meaning of fear and who, while modestly deprecating what is known as "insane" or sensational flying and who preaches the beauty and commendability of scientific flying, yet skims and darts and spirals and dives and drives through the air in such dizzy fashion that her every appearance is the supreme sensation of the day.

Daredevilry evidently runs in the Law family, for Ruth is a sister to the famous Rodman Law, champion air man, high diver and motion picture sensationist, whose doings have furnished the press with special stories galore. Not satisfied with the achievements she accomplishes alone, Ruth has secured another intrepid soul in George Mayland, a parachute jumper, who goes up for 2,000 feet or over in the "Air Queen's" machine, creeps out on the crossed wires under the plane, cuts loose his chute from the body of the car and, with the airship going sixty or seventy miles an hour, drops 500 feet before he dares let his frail support umbrella open and carry him to the earth 1,500 feet.

Rushing at a rate too terrific for even an express train to rival, the effect of this sudden lightning of the madly careening airship, outlined like a shooting star against the far sky, is absolutely awesome, and spectators momentarily lose breath and speech until the little flier and the big car right themselves and triumphantly continue their journey—for that time at least.

Going over Niagara falls in a barrel or smoking in a gunpowder factory is inconsequential compared with this feat, which sends shivers up the spine at the mere description and which is in reality one of the most spectacular, sensational, electrifying and tremendously thrilling ever witnessed and which no other flier is duplicating or attempting.

Every day Ruth Law and her nerve tingling turn will be the supreme attraction at the Kentucky State Fair, and on two afternoons of the week George Mayland will make his death-defying dive.

BANNER TOBACCO YEAR

Early Crops Insure Great Show For Thirteenth Annual Kentucky State Fair

FOR the first time in the past several years conditions are entirely favorable for tobacco growers, and the crop for 1915 will be an unusually early one. In view of this fact it is more than probable that the tobacco exhibit at the Kentucky State Fair this year will be an interesting and extensive one, with growers of every county competing for the interesting premiums offered. E. S. Rees, superintendent of the department, is making an appeal to growers throughout the state to do their sections proud this season by entering the banner leafage of their crops, and the rivalry will be keen.

Entries for the tobacco department will close Sept. 8, and in the interim application blanks and further information may be had from Evan S. Rees, superintendent, Springfield, Ky., or J. L. Dent, secretary, Kentucky State Fair, Louisville, Ky.

The various crops and leafage eligible for entry are as follows:

Handsome Programs For State Fair.
Handsome programs for all the daily and nightly events of the thirteenth annual Kentucky State Fair, to be held in Louisville Sept. 13-18, are being prepared by Pat Clark and Harry Leslie, two of the liveliest advertising experts in Louisville.
The books list every special feature, and each of the daily track and horse show events, giving entries, riders and time and place of showing and cover the Midway amusements, the Hippodrome show, band concerts and the great free outdoor affairs, which include the world's wonder, Ruth Law, in her flying exhibition, during which George Mayland dives from the airship with only a parachute between him and instant death.
Advertising space in these programs is choice and may be spoken for by addressing the above named representatives or the Kentucky State Fair offices in Louisville.
State Fair Season Tickets.
Season tickets in book form are being prepared by the Kentucky State Fair management and will go on sale from Aug. 15 to Sept. 11. The books are decidedly economical to Fair visitors, comprising as they do a half dozen day tickets which sell singly at 50 cents at the Fair gate, but the half dozen go for $2. The night tickets, which are good after 6 o'clock and may be used both at the admission gates and the Hippodrome show in the Pavilion, sell for $1 for six. Books will be forwarded to out of town purchasers upon the receipt of postoffice money orders for the number of books desired. Address all applications and inquiries to J. L. ### BEAVER DAM.

Aug. 16.—Beaver Dam now has a canning factory in full blast. Messrs. Travis & Lalenger are the promoters. They are hustling young men and will no doubt make it a success. Their output is about 1,000 cans per day. They are only canning tomatoes at present, but they contemplate enlarging their business enabling them to can all kinds of fruit and vegetables in the near future.

Two weddings occurred at the Baptist parsonage this week. Rev. R. L. Creal, pastor of the Baptist church, performing the ceremonies. Dr. Charles DeWeese and Miss Nannie Napier, of Rosine, were married last Tuesday evening. They left immediately for the home of the groom in Muhlenberg county. Thursday afternoon. Prof. W. F. Anderson and Miss Alma Riley, of Hartford, were made husband and wife. After the ceremony they took the train for Bowling Green and other points South for a bridal trip, after which they will return to their home in Hartford.

Last Tuesday evening the lady friends of Mrs. A. K. Miller gave her a surprise serenade and banquet, it being her birthday anniversary. About 40—all ladies—were present. The instruments they performed on were dishpans and cow bells. After the serenade a lunch was spread, consisting of fruits, candies, cakes and ice cream. After luncheon was served and pleasant reminiscences of other days were gone over, all returned to their homes. Those present living out of town were: Mrs. Laura Austin, of Louisville; Mrs. Fessie Kelly, of Greenville, and Mrs. Fannie Leach, of Central City.

Dr. Clarence DeWeese, of Clinton, Ky., has permanently located in our town and opened his office in Wilbur Mitchell's drug store.

Misses Bessie and Annie Alford visited in Caneyville last week. Mrs. Florence, their mother, visited her sister, Mrs. Gary, of Horse Branch.

The Baptist church, in conference last Saturday, ordered the ordination of Rev. Frank Burdon to the full work of the ministry. The ordination will take place next Tuesday evening.
